

INNOVATIVE TECHNOLOGIES IN TEACHING ENGLISH

Mukhammadiyeva Munisa Shuhrat kizi

teacher of English language at secondary school 285,

Yangi Hayot district, Tashkent city

Abstract: English is important as the main language of global communication and business. Today, along with the development of technology, the English language teaching process is also being updated. With the help of innovative technologies, teaching methods are becoming more effective and interesting. In this article, we will talk about the innovative technologies used in teaching English and their advantages.

Keywords: English language, teaching methodology, language, interactive methods, lessons, mobile applications.

Online learning platforms such as Duolingo, Babbel and Rosetta Stone make learning English easy. These platforms allow students to learn the language through interactive lessons, games and tests. Students can take lessons at their own time and place. Through games and interactive tasks, the learning process becomes interesting. Students have the opportunity to choose classes appropriate to their level. Mobile applications make the process of learning English more convenient. Students can download various apps to learn English on their phones or tablets. For example, apps like Memrise and HelloTalk allow students to learn and practice new words. Students can learn anywhere and anytime. The process of learning through games becomes interesting and effective. Virtual reality and augmented reality technologies create new opportunities in teaching English. With the help of VR and AR, students will be able to practice English in real-life situations.[1]

For example, through VR simulations, students can communicate in English. Students learn the language by simulating real-life situations. With the help of VR and AR, the learning process becomes interesting and interactive. Artificial intelligence technologies are creating new opportunities in teaching English. With the help of AI, it is possible to analyze the learning process of students and offer personalized lessons. For example, AI-based chatbots help students learn a language by asking and answering questions. Classes are offered to suit the needs of students. Students get quick answers to their questions. Social networks and forums are great platforms for learning English. Students have the opportunity to communicate in English, exchange ideas and make new friends. For example, students can develop their language skills by communicating in English on platforms such as Facebook, Twitter and Reddit. Advantages of social networks. Students have the opportunity to communicate with other language learners. Students can develop the language by reading news and articles in English. The use of innovative technologies in teaching English in the classroom makes the teaching process more effective and interesting. [2]

Teachers can conduct lessons interactively using online platforms. For example, Duolingo or Kahoot! Conducting games and quizzes together with students on platforms such as. Giving students tasks for self-study after class on online platforms. This will develop their independent learning skills. Engaging learners to play English language games through mobile applications. This will increase their interest and develop their language skills. Arrange students into groups to learn and help each other through the apps together. Using VR technologies, giving students the opportunity to simulate real-life situations. For example, simulations of shopping in a store or ordering in a restaurant in English. Provide interactive experiences for students to learn new words and phrases using augmented reality applications.[3]

Providing readers with the ability to ask and get answers to questions through AI-based chatbots. This will develop their communication skills. Prepare personalized lessons and tasks using AI based on students' level of mastery. Engaging students to communicate in English on social networks. For example, language learning through Facebook groups or Telegram channels. Encourage students to write articles or posts in English and discuss them in class. It develops their written and oral skills. Using innovative technologies in the classroom allows teachers to increase students' interest and develop their English language skills. With the help of these technologies, teachers can make lessons more interactive and effective. And students will have the opportunity to develop self-study and communication skills.[4]

Conclusion:

The use of innovative technologies in teaching English makes the teaching process more effective and interesting. Through online learning platforms, mobile applications, VR and AR technologies, artificial intelligence and social networks, students will have new opportunities in the process of learning English. With the help of these technologies, the communication between teachers and students becomes stronger and the language learning process becomes more effective.

References:

- 1.Muminova, F. M. Use of modern innovative technologies in teaching English / F. M. Muminova. — 2020.
- 2.Iriskulov A.T. and others Kids' English pupil's book 2nd grade -Tashkent — Uzbekistan; 2014
- 3.Passov Ye.I. Communicative method obuchenia inoyazichnomu govoreniyu. M.: Prosveshchenie, 1991
- 4.Hoshimov O'. Yakubov I. Methodology of teaching English. T., - 2003
- 5.Pedagogy. /prof. Under the general editorship of M.Kh. Tokhtakhodjayeva.-T.: Publishing house of "National Society of Philosophers of Uzbekistan", 2010.